

With support from Health & Family Welfare Department, Government of Gujarat, IIPHG is training 110 engineers (over 5 batches during February 2018) and allied professionals engaged in water resource management on prevention and control of mosquito breeding and mosquito borne disease.